

Mom Tri's Boathouse Phuket Announces On-line Photo Exhibition Winners

Unanimously we've chosen the winning photo, this happy shot of Mr. Andrew Byer and his daughter Natalia taken on 7th August 2006 on the beach in front of the Boathouse. Why did we all like this photo the best? The smiles of father and daughter are infectious. Also the shirt and child's beach toy are a nice catchy pink colour contrasting with the sand and the background. You can see the famous Boathouse beachfront with the familiar red beach umbrellas and Boathouse entrance gate in the background.

"At Dusk" was taken by Boathouse guests from their room on the third floor. As this photo was posted directly on our site we don't know who it is from yet so photographer... please send an email to pr@boathousephuket.com. We all liked the atmosphere of this shot, showing that magical time before evening. Dinner tables are set, waves are lapping on the shore and the lights are already on which adds to the feeling of intimacy. An enjoyable evening with a romantic dinner under the stars is sure to follow.

Julie and Hew Blair from Australia had given a copy of this very old shot of their son on Kata Beach to K. Jarinee. It looks like this one was taken in the early nineties; the beach looks ..., well different! There are hardly any people, umbrellas and beach chairs; the Kata Beach Resort did not even exist yet. What we all loved the most about this photo is it shows, besides a cute boy and the Boathouse beach, Robert the dog, a beloved fixture at the Boathouse in the old days. Many of our returning guests will remember Robert as one of the friendliest, smartest dogs. He even wrote a regular newsletter to the guests back then!

Congratulations to the three lucky winners who will receive a free summer package. And a big "thank you" to all of you who have posted altogether over 200 photos on the site! With Honourable mentions to dolce far niente Mr. Robert Engels, Mrs. Caldwell, Mr. Peter Colouseus and others for their excellent photos. You're welcome to post more photos and we'll keep you informed of our next on-line exhibition contest.
